Current Job Role: Qualified teacher working in tutoring business

I am excited to have been appointed as a parent governor and look forward to using my skills and knowledge in this new role. My professional background is in education - I am a qualified primary teacher having spent a number of years working in schools in Wirral, mainly in Key Stage 1.

I left full time teaching when my eldest daughter was 2 and moved sideways into a tutoring business alongside my husband. My role takes care of all the administration as well as tutoring small groups in maths and English. I also work in a small preschool setting, and enjoy using the Early Years knowledge I developed during my teaching career.

Outside of work, I am kept busy with my three daughters and we enjoy spending time together as a family and with our friends. We are also active members of our church, where I help to lead the children's activities. I enjoy cycling, watching sports and enjoy a good cup of coffee!

I have a passion for supporting looked after children and those who have been adopted. I am a 'champion' of the charity Home for Good who support fostering and adoption across the UK. I hope that I can use my knowledge and interests to support the Liscard Primary community.
